

Transcontinental Pipeline LLC Economic Impact Study—June 2010. Preparation of an analysis estimating the economic impacts of pipeline expansion and facility modification in Pennsylvania.

Civic Research Alliance Impact Study—May 2010. Research to analyze negative economic impact data as a result of a flood in a Pennsylvania municipality. The study analyzed direct, indirect, and induced impact throughout the region.

Wall Street West/Wired Impact & Sustainability Assessment—December 2009. An assessment of the WIRED/Wall Street West program was completed to determine overall quantitative and qualitative impact on the 10 county region. Surveys, interviews, focus groups, data mining and input-output analysis were used to complete this 18 month study for the Department of Labor.

Keystone Opportunity Zone (KOZ) Analysis—May 2009. A review of the KOZ sites in Luzerne County was conducted for the purpose of presenting the economic and tax impact to re-authorize KOZ sites.

Radnor Property Group (North Main Street Gateway) —June 2008. Preparation of an economic impact analysis surrounding the construction and operation of a mixed use facility as part of a college campus that includes housing, daycare, and restaurants.

