

Moses Taylor Hospital Health Status Report – June 2010. A demographic analysis along with a health status report for Lackawanna County. Charting of health trends for past decade. Identify implications of population trends, age demographics, and other economic factors on the growth potential of the region.

Healthy Community Assessment—May 2008. An assessment of Luzerne County in regard to types and number of facilities , health initiatives, and service providers available relating to obesity, nutrition, wellness, physical activity, disease management, and the built environment in Luzerne County.

United Way of Wyoming Valley-Social Services-Best Practices— March 2006. Reviews best practices to develop a strategy align with homelessness and social service management.

Volunteers In Medicine (VIM) Business Plan—June 2005. A strategic business development plan was created to guide the clinic founders from concept to operating a complete primary care clinic to serve the working poor.

Volunteers In Medicine (VIM) Feasibility Study— October 2004. A needs assessment was completed to identify the number of uninsured people in Luzerne County, and the cost to healthcare institutions, and the most common services provided.