

County Impact of Public Transportation – April 2007. Investigation into a current public transportation system. Analysis of current services and the impact of those services on the community.

City of Wilkes-Barre Wi-Fi Strategy – July 2005. Conducted a needs assessment and feasibility plan for the city looking to create a strategy for a Wi-Fi system that included public safety and public services systems.

